Announcements by Mayor and Council: Mayor Komahcheet wanted to commend Chief Donna Kimmel of the hard work that she and her officers have done. Appreciate the hard work and she and the officers have done to catch some of the criminals and appreciate her work with the neighborhood watch program. All of the council agreed with the mayor on the appreciation and the hard work that has been done lately by all.

Citizen Participation: Amber DeWinter let council know of the Fall Festival that would be here September 21, 2013. She was excited about this years activities but really wanted to get ahead of next year with some live music and activities for all ages. She also wanted to know if council was still excited about the grants that she had in the works, i.e. the splash pad, exercise equipment around the walk in the park etc. Council agreed. She needed to go to the courthouse and get some maps and legal description but she was still working on this and will keep council posted.

Ed Trope from Goodwill Industries spoke to council in regards to the little red habitat boxes that are around the City of Cache. He explained that this was from a company in Texas and none of the proceeds from these boxes stayed in the state of Oklahoma. He is visiting all of the towns and cities in Oklahoma and trying to educate them of this information. Also that Goodwill does stay in the State of Oklahoma and benefits all that needs them.
