Announcements by Mayor and Council:

Mr. Lyon reminded the chambers that the mass communication system was available for the public on the website for sign up.

Mayor Brown stated that the City of Cache was getting complaints of mosquitos and he was aware and has been trying to find someone qualified to spray the city. Unfortunately, there wasn't anybody and has asked OML if he can spray the city and not get paid for the service. He was told as long as there was no profit to him or his business that he was able to spray the city of mosquitos. City of Cache would furnish the chemicals for the fogging. It was asked that Mr. Royval would throw out pellets for the mosquito larva in the standing water and ditches. Mr. Runyan stated that it has only rained 12 inches lately not much you can do about that.

Citizens Participation:

Venius Dobson stated that she received a message on Facebook applauding the quickness of our City Boys on fixing a pothole that she complained about. Also was thanking the city for the spraying of the mosquitos, it was much appreciated.

Kristin Ward: The Chamber of Commerce/Blue Moon/Animal Shelter hosting a drive for the animal shelter to accept toys, food, beds and supplies for the animals. Any items are welcomed and can be dropped off at the above-mentioned businesses. Shirts would be sold for the animal shelter for $18 and $10 would go to the shelter. Ms. Ward also stated that the Chambers is partnering with Blue Moon for a blood drive August 21, 2021, place will be at the Cache City Hall Chambers from 2:30 p to 6:30 p.

Business Items:

#5: Mr. Jung showed council the locations of retention pond. Mr. Cargill states they are improving culverts and drainage to the retention pond and the ditches down "E" Ave to the creek. Motion by Lyon approving to proceed with developing with the Cargill Estate west of Highway 115. Second by Runyan.
