Announcements:

Council stated that this was the best Christmas parade. A variety of different contestants. All agreed that each year it is getting better. Mayor Brown stated that Councilman Runyan was the only tractor in the parade and that next year he was bringing a tractor. Mr. Hill stated he met with Phase III. Final product to bring the school and the community together. It will make the school better and help the elderly citizens of Cache. Suggestion was between the city and the school to do a cleanup, help the elderly. Stacy Robinson and Ms. Green suggested to have some kids sing.

Citizen Participation:

Brent Hendrix 402 Mountain Meadow questioned the updated website as to the water/sewer rates. Stated that currently the rates that are on the website are not updated. Code enforcement officer pulled up the website and showed Mr. Hendrix that the website is current to what the water bills are charging. Also stated that the way we are charging out the water bills is not correct. A verbiage of per 1000 gallons was added to this year's ordinance amendment. He seemed satisfied to the answer.
